(e) On 20th April, 2002 Sqn Ldr Khan and Fg Offr Dahiya were on a fighter maneuvering exercise. After the completion of the exercise, the pilot gave a call that he would be rejoining on his own but he did not. Subsequently, there was no radar contact with the aircraft.

The cause of the accident has not been established as yet. Depending upon the ground reports, the likely area of the crash has been identified. The Bhutanese Government has also been approached to render all possible assistance in locating the wreckage of the aircraft and the missing pilots. The IAF has so far carried out 168 sorties.

The search operations are still in progress to locate the crash site.
